File No. Miscellaneous No. 181.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE.

Sinza Police Station,

REPORT

Date Nov. 5th, 19 32.

Subject (in full) Anonymous letter 9199/369 29-10-32.

Made by ..... and ..... Forwarded by D.I. Bennett.

Sir,

Re attached anonymous letter, premises No. 10 Taku Road, the Cheng Chi Te Shun Lou Tea-house (徵記德順樓), have been kept under observation by detectives since receipt of letter at the station.

The proprietor of this tea shop, one Woo Ah Tsung (吳阿增) is known to detectives of Sinza Station as of the loafer type, but nothing criminal is known against him.

Nothing suspicious seen regarding the frequenters of this tea-shop, who are the usual type of habituals of such places.

The writer of this letter, Chang Ah Pao (張阿寶) is not known at the Oriental Hotel, the record of the hotel register fails to disclose this man's name as having been a resident of room 309.

Premises personally visited by D.I. Bennett and detectives on the evening of 4-11-32, nothing suspicious seen that would substantiate the allegations in the letter.

It is suspected that a small rear room in this teashop is used for the purpose of gambling, which is probably the reason why the letter was written.

Premises under observation re this gambling.

I am, Sir,

Yours obediently,
